A new school year begins on September 7

For immediate release

August 31, 2010

Conseil scolaire catholique du Nouvel-Ontario (CSCNO) teaching and administration staff are looking forward to welcoming its students on September 7, the first school day of the 2010-2011 school year. The CSCNO wishes to remind parents that unlike past years, there will be no early dismissal for students and that they will leave school at their regular time.

« We are always excited to receive our new students as well as returning students,” said Mrs. Lyse-Anne Papineau, CSCNO Director of Education. « Through the support of our staff and parents, we are committed to offering to all of our students a quality French language catholic education.”

Located in the heart of a dynamic region with a strong Francophone tradition, the Conseil scolaire catholique du Nouvel-Ontario is one of the largest Francophone school boards in Ontario and in French Canada. The area served by the CSCNO includes the communities of Chapleau, Dubreuilville, Espanola, Hornepayne, Marskstay-Warren, Michipicoten, North Shore, Sault Ste. Marie, Greater Sudbury and part of West Nipissing.

The Conseil scolaire catholique du Nouvel-Ontario offers a French Catholic Educational Program that is widely recognized for its excellence. The CSCNO provides a quality learning environment and academic program that runs from early childhood to adult education, with more than 7,300 students in 28 elementary and 10 secondary schools.
